

Academy of Sound education

Academy of Sound Covid 19 Terms & Conditions

1. Students must follow C-19 guidelines at all times.
2. We wear masks for the duration of the session.
3. We have ventilation and reasonable distancing.
4. We wash our hands and check temperature before class.
5. If you have any symptoms, you must not attend class.

In the event of lockdown / unexpected interruption:

1. All courses continue online in the event of lockdown / unexpected interruption.
2. We contact you weekly on a one to one basis at your regular session time.
3. You will be provided with research material and portfolio modules.
4. If you have pro tools at home, we can advise you on installation & new techniques.
5. Those on the introductory course can continue to work online or pause their place on the course until lockdown is lifted.
6. Those on a nine month course can continue to work online or pause their place on the course until lockdown is lifted.
7. Course fee payment dates remain the same as per the original registration contract agreement between the student and the Academy of Sound. There is no discount or refund of fees.
8. If a student drops out of the course, fees are due up until the date of confirmation via email.
9. By enrolling on our course you have agreed to all of the above terms & conditions.

I trust the above is in order and is a good way to continue safely with your studies at the Academy of Sound in the event of lockdown or other unexpected interruption to our work.

Yours Sincerely

Aidan McGovern
Director
